Dardi Munwurro

Dardi Munwurro's vision is to build stronger families and safer communities. We do this by delivering a range of healing, behaviour change and family violence programs, to break the cycle of inter-generational trauma in Aboriginal families and communities, by empowering and inspiring individuals to heal the past, acknowledge the present and create a positive vision for the future.

Our Values

Diversity Accountability Respect Determination Inspire

About Our Program:

Dardi Munwurro offers a group-based Healing and Behaviour Change Program for Aboriginal men who use or have been convicted of family violence.

Dardi Munwurro's Healing and Behaviour Change Programs encourage and respectfully challenge men to take responsibility and be accountable for their actions. Our program supports men to take ownership and reconnect by working through three elements - the Past, the Present and the Future, in a culturally safe environment.

Men who participate in Dardi Munwurro's programs work towards:

- Strong Spirit and Strong Culture
- Taking Responsibility and Being Accountable
- Healthy Relationships

Dardi Munwurro's Healing and Behaviour Change Program comprises:

- A formal intake and assessment process, including individual's group readiness.
- A three or five day healing camp led by Facilitators, Elders and Traditional Owners.
- Fortnightly group sessions led by experienced and trained Facilitators.
- Ongoing informal connection with Dardi Munwurro.

Eligibility:

To be eligible for acceptance into the Program, a man must:

- Identify as being of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent.
- Be 18 years of age or over.
- At risk of using, or using, family violence.
- Be prepared to enter the Dardi Munwurro Community Program voluntarily.

Men with pending charges, warrants, Family Violence Intervention Orders and other court orders must disclose these and agree to Release Information to Dardi Munwurro during the Intake Process.
